

Firewind, Breaking The Silence

Hear voices screaming
Haunted by demons
This wilful crime has
Done it's last crime

I see my dirty face
Smiling through the tears
Silent voices telling me to treason

All my tears, all my tears
Turn into rage, into rage
Now all that's turned my fears
All my fears turned into strength
It built my strength

Breaking, breaking the silence
Hiding, I'm tired of hiding
I know, I'll make my way out of this mess
Breaking, breaking the silence
Fighting, I will die fighting
I know, my courage will last forever

My heart is aching
My love is fading
So tired of living in fear

Oh, there's nowhere to run
My shade has taken all my pride
Need to step out
Can't rely on other's preachers

All my tears, all my tears
Turn into rage, into rage
Now all that's turned my fears
All my fears turned into strength
I don't want to fall

Breaking, breaking the silence
Hiding, I'm tired of hiding
I know, I'll make my way out of this mess
Breaking, breaking the silence
Fighting, I will die fighting
I know, my courage will last forever

-Solo-

Breaking, breaking the silence
Hiding, I'm tired of hiding
I know, I'll make my way out of this mess
Breaking, breaking the silence
Fighting, I will die fighting
I know, my courage will last forever
