

Firewind, Distant Thoughts

This lost child
Reasons why
This world filled with lies

Son of the lands stained Himself
pride to pay

Bring this as you will
this thing
calls for you

I won't
let the past
I know
you won't last

CHORUS:
Something hits me
from above
A name of life
and the rest of God

Wishing for the same aligning
an open mind
and the will to live

Coming out of the sky
a power strikes
Down my life away

Under blackened ties
a sickened world
with no place to stay!

YEAH!

I won't say
who you are
I won't call your name

You can't be who you are you can't say your name

self worth is the key time brings that to see

Sweat for the lost land Search for the lost lamb

CHORUS

YEAH!

CHORUS

Coming out of the sky
a power strikes
down my life away

under blackened ties
a sickened world
with no place to stay!

YEAH!
