

Firma, Nightmares

The trend that your showing is not ok, it was expected
you hide into the mess you've made

The way we're going to tell you to go away but stay in touch is hard but its time, you understand.

I have been slaving away these past few years.
No, you don't understand and you won't so give in.

You weren't cut out for this, my mistake.
my mistake, for the time and effort you dont give so we don't care to push you on..
