

First Aid Kit, Fallen Snow

Guess there are some things that you don't let go
Like there is beauty in fallen snow
I keep a box of your old letters
In a drawer and out of view

Mm-mm-mm-mm

When you think that I'm not watching
I can see a bleakness in your smile
I know all the depths you've gone to
To lift the sorrow from your eyes
Oh, was it worth your while?

Ah, you
Can I keep coming back to you?
Ah, you
Can I keep coming back to you?

5 AM, my head is spinning
Raging heat wave, middle of July
All my thoughts, they tend to wander
You could always unravel me like twine
Oh, come and shake my mind

Ah, you
Can I keep coming back to you?
Ah, you
Can I keep coming back to you?

I'm gonna love you 'til the moon don't shine
Oh, I'm gonna love you 'til the waters run dry

Ah, you
Can I keep coming back to you?
Ah, you
Can I keep coming back to you?
