

First Aid Kit, The Last One

I've been sleeping, windows open
In the silence, in the dark
I can feel my boundless desire
How it beats on this hungry heart

When did I become a woman
Who waits, fevered, for a call?
I need a word from you, a touch, a feeling
Oh so desperate to feel anything at all

My, my, my, my, my, my!
My, my, my, my!

How I wasted my time before you!
How I wasted my time before you!
Wasted my time before I knew you

You have lit this glowing ember
Hesitation kills the spark
I need a cure, a fix, a pure conviction
Make it more than a shot in the dark

My, my, my, my, my, my!
My, my, my, my!

How I wasted my time before you!
How I wasted my time before you!
Wasted my time before I knew you

I wanna love you like nobody's ever loved you
I want you to be the last one I ever love
I wanna love you like nobody's ever loved you
I want you to be the last one I ever love
I wanna love you like nobody's ever loved you
I want you to be the last one I ever love

My, my, my, my, my, my!
My, my, my, my!

How I wasted my time before you!
How I wasted my time before you!
How I wasted my time before you!
Wasted my time before I knew you
