

First Call, Lord Of All

(written by Phill McHugh)

Lord of All, of the heights
Where faith can lift the trusting heart
Lord of all, of the depths
Where fear would tear such faith apart
Lord of all, of the nations
Quick to anger, bearing arms
Lord of all, of each child
Held by it's mother safe from harm

CHORUS:

Lord of All
Of all seen and unseen things
Of the universe that sings
And calls you Lord of all
Lord of all
Of the power not to sin
You have always been
And always will be
Lord of all
Lord of all, of a peace
That we can draw with every breath
Lord of all, of provision
For each need in life and death
Lord of all, of the turnings
Of the seasons and the earth
Lord of all, of the love
That purchased man a second birth
Lord of All
Of all seen and unseen things
Of the universe that sings
And calls you Lord of all
Lord of all
Of the power not to sin
You have always been
And always will be
Lord of all
