

Fish Go Deep, The Cure And The Cause

You give sweet, and how easily, I, I fall deep
Your touch pours like honey on my skin, smooth it lingers
You, the cure the cause
Of my blues
My only flaw

Your sea it can freezing, I thought I'd float
I sink deeper blue, by you I'm consumed
Oh I'm such a fool thinking I Won't get caught in your downhill flow
Swept away, what good is a beautiful day, I'm alone
And yooou, the cure and the cause
Of my blues
My only flaw

You keep needing, keep calling
The cure and the cause
You keep needing, keep calling
The cure and the cause
You keep needing, keep calling
Even from a shut door
You step from view

Can still see you, your shadow tells me more

Don't take your love away, your love away...

And you, the cure and the cause
Of my blues
My only flaw

Don't take your love away, your love away...

Cure me, cure me
Cure me, please cure me

{Final Verse - Not in Dennis' remix)
Just a few things before I head on my way
You are wonderful and good when you want to be
You are what I want but not what i need
And you are no good for me
But you are the cure, oh yeah, and you are the cause of my blues
Cure me, cure me....
