Fish, I Know What I Like

[genesis, "selling england by the pound"] (t. banks / p. collins / p. gabriel / s. hackett / m. rutherford)

It's one o'clock and time for lunch, Dum-dee-dum-dee-dum-dum When the sun beats down and I lie on the bench, I can always hear them talk.

There's always been ethel: "jacob, wake up! you've got to tidy your room now." And then mister lewis: "isn't it time that he was out on his own? " Over the garden wall, two little lovebirds - cuckoo to you! Keep them moving blades sharp...

I know what I like, and I like what I know;

Getting better in your wardrobe, stepping one beyond your show. Sunday night, mr farmer called, said: "listen son, you're wasting your time; there's a future for you In the fire escape trade. come up to town!" But I remebered a voice from the past; "gambling only plays when you're winning" - I had to thank old miss mort for schooling a failure. Keep them moving blades sharp...

I know what I like, and I like what I know; Getting better in your wardrobe, stepping one beyond your show.

When the sun beats down and I lie on the bench, I can always hear them talk. Me, I'm just a lawnmower - you can tell me by the way I walk.
