

Fish, Square Go

I'm a soldier in the forever wars, no photos of a family in my wallet,
Got no I.D., no credit cards, I don't exist, I never have.
I never have.

Raised in the jungles I quickly learned to read the trees,
Schooled in deserts I walk on shifting sands.
Neutral shadows, unseen beneath a bed of leaves,
I await the call, open frequency to the square go.

I want a square go! A square go!

My blood is ice, the temperature's rising,
My soul's a glacier, I move alone,
A pilgrim's progress in a shadow world,
I learned to sit in silence with my sounds.

I want a square go! A square go!

(spoken)
I'm tired of loosing out
Being booked down
I want to punch back
Fight back
I want to slash,
I want a knife
I just wanna hit back in this world
One day I want level.....(?)
I just want to see the world,
fight the world on my terms.
Want to fight back

My blood is ice, the temperature's rising,
My soul's a glacier, I move alone,
I move alone,
Alone,
Alone.
