

Fisher, Breakable

Do you always have to tell him
everything on your mind?
You know that too much
honesty can be so unkind.

Everytime you throw him to the floor,
Why are you surprised to see
He's breakable?

You always try to find
what's holding him away from you.
But do you ever see your anger
standing there right between you?

And everytime you throw him to the wall,
Why are you surprised to see
He's breakable?

Tell the world that he's breaking your heart.
Go tell the world,
nothing's ever your fault.
Go tell them all...

And every time you throw him to the floor,
Why are you surprised to see
He's breakable?
And every time you push him to the wall,
Why are you surprised to see
He's breakable?

Breakable... breakable....
