

Fisher, Paradise

Danny says he sees the sky right through the ceiling
When we're lying close together on the floor
Says it comes right down and leaves him with this feeling
Always hungering to ask for something
More from life
More from love
More.....

He's got a dream of paradise
The perfect scheme for paradise
And I won't give up on him now

Danny says he always knows what I am thinking
All he has to do is listen to my mind
Says it cries all night whenever I am sleeping
Always begging me to ask for something
More from life
More from love
More...

The perfect scheme for paradise
And I won't give up on him now
