

Five Finger Death Punch, Blood And Tar

Peel away the skin behind your face
Show me who you really are
Underneath that broken smile you wear
You're twisted, ugly, and bizarre (just like me)
I'm tired of pretending that this isn't ending
I'm not sure which side of you I fear the most
"Enemy"
That is the tag you gave me
I guess that makes me
Your favorite scar
Enemy
You pushed until I'm broken
I'm what you made me
A badge of blood and tar
Crash and burn, you think you'd learn
It's almost like you love the pain
If you can't have it, then no one will
You're narcissistic and deranged (just like me)
There's so much deception that we've lost reception
I'm not sure which part of you I hate the most
"Enemy"
That is the tag you gave me
I guess that makes me
Your favorite scar
Enemy
You pushed until I'm broken
I'm what you made me
A badge of blood and tar
When we remember
We are all mad
The mysteries disappeared
And life stands explained
"Enemy"
That is the tag you gave me
I guess that makes me
Your favorite scar
Enemy
You pushed until I'm broken
I'm what you made me
A badge of blood and tar
