

Five for Fighting, Bloody Mary (A Note On Apathy)

Over by the still she says,
Man I think you better wait for tomorrow!
Take this pillow for your head
And I'll take you.
Back against the beast I went
To feel her coming, hot for a follow up
Here comes the sun again(to see me through)
On and on she takes me from you, my love
On and on she rakes me from you
Happily I leave her fed
Tonight I swear, I swear on tomorrow(wait)
Here comes the sun again
To see me through
On and on she takes me from you, my love
On and on she rakes me from you
Bloody Mary's for all
Bloody Mary's for all
On and on she takes me from you, my love
On and on she rakes me from you
All of my dreams for you to follow
All of my dreams for you to swallow
All of my dreams for you
