

Five Iron Frenzy, Screams In The Night

Screams in the night, screams in the night, screams in the night.

Come on and scream out into the night! (repeat)

I saw you in your backyard.

You were watering the dirt,

You began to scream and shout

And shake the entire earth.

So I came over to help you

But alas you were gone

I felt so sad inside,

That I wrote this awesome song.
