

Five Iron Frenzy, Solidarity

To the brothers and the sisters,
to all of the resisters,
all the workers broke and cryin',
on the road that leads to Zion:
The mountain, the mountain,
we will all climb, all of God's children,
in God's own time.

Chorus:

Unity the verb, solidarity.
You the truth have heard, solidarity.
Rise up to the call, solidarity.
United we can never fall.
Let one voice ring throughout the world,
let truth be sown, let us lay our own lives down,
a greater love was never known.

While the light is growing dim,
make war to keep your faith in him,
knowing what has made us free,
unity, not uniformity.
One world, one voice, in trenches we stand tall,
one truth has found us,
one shepherd for us all.
