

Five Man Electrical Band, Absolutely Right

I'm knockin' on your door
So you let me in
Don't you know that I was thinking
I swear I won't be the way I was before
About what you told me
Rollin' it over in my mind
And much to my surprise I find
That you were absolutely right
Second time around should be easy
You've been right all along
You're absolutely right and I'm wrong
Break down the wall between me and you
I know it was you who said
So we can see completely
And you were absolutely right
How easy love can be
It would be me who'd come crawlin'
Back to you upon my knees I wish that you could see
You're absolutely right and I'm wrong
You've been right all along
Oh how bad I want to be
Oh the kind of man to who
You'd give your key
If you'd let me in the room again
Come supper time we'll be sittin'
By the fire this evening
Drinkin' homemade wine
And play and love the night away
We can laugh and dance and sing
