

Five O'Clock Heroes, Skin Deep

Well my name is out of movies for good
I dont date those crazy actors who would
Well I learnt my lesson hard playing chips with b-grade stars
Who care for nothing more than opening a door
Skin deep whoa
Well I wont take on this business again
And I dont see how it is to pretend, and I dont just Anyone because everybody says Im wrong
To care for anyone who comes into my world
Skin deep whoa
Every night when youre here with me
I can feel your eyes still watching me
The way I thing my heart just sinks
Those city girls are no good for me!
Skin deep whoa
