

Five Times August, Could This Be Everything

You know what I'm looking for
You know that I can't afford the things I want
For life's uncertainties

I think you're just what I need
To get me through everything, and there's a lot
But it's all under me
It's all under me

What do you think?
What could this be?
What do you think?
Could this be everything?

This is the long way,
This is the right way
This is the greatest hour I've ever spent with you
