

Five Times August, Up To Me

You wanna feel loose
You wanna see how i'm abused
You wanna get faded
You never wanna concentrate on me
I'm too much of an angel
I'm too much of a saint though i can't be
I'm too much of a reject you dont expect much from

I wanna feel safe
I wanna feel like I'm not hated too
I wanna get closer I wanna feel the most I get from you
I'm too much of a rebound
I'm too much on the ground though you cant be
Your always getting higher
You don't desire me

So what have I got to prove
And what have I got to lose
When your not worth fighting for
And why am I feeling down
While your out messing around and your
Not worth begging for

Just wanted to stop by
Just wanted to see you
One last time
Just wanted to say bye
Just wanted to get you off my mind
Just wanted to fit in
But then I saw you with him

So what have I got to prove
And what have I got to lose

When your not worth fighting for
And why am I feeling down
While your out messing around and your
Not worth begging for

Its up to me .. Its up to me
And I'm still falling
Its up to me .. its up to me
And I'm still calling

Its up to me
Its up to me
Its up to me and I'm still hoping
Its up to me for you to hold me
Its up to me to let you go
Its up to me
But for all you know
I'm already gone

So what have I got to prove
And what have I got to lose

Its up to me
Its up to me

Its up to me
Its up to me
