

Five, Two Sides To Every Story

Yeah, yeah come on
Uh

Two sides, from the heart
Well it's alright, alright

You wanna know about me
Well it's the way it's got to be
There's more to me than what you see
On TV screens is make believe

You think you know about us
Well it's an element of trust
Come talk to me respectfully
Cause these days we're public property

Oh oh oh oh, from the heart
Oh oh oh oh, like us from the start

Because there's two sides to every story
You think you know me
You gotta show me
But it's alright, don't be sorry
It's just the way I am

Because there's two sides to every story
You think you know me
You gotta show me
But I'm telling you once again
You gotta go for who I am
I'm telling you once again
You gotta go for who I am

Yeah yeah, it's alright
I'm telling you
There's two sides
Yeah, yeah it's alright
It's the just the way I am

Do you care about me
Or the pictures that you see
Are we just a face without a personality
Yeah, yeah

Do you care about us
Or the funk that we bust
There's more to us than magazines and dance routines
And teenage dreams

Oh oh oh oh, from the heart

Because there's two sides to every story
You think you know me
You gotta show me
But it's alright, don't be sorry
It's just the way I am

Because there's two sides to every story
You think you know me
You gotta show me
But I'm telling you once again
You gotta go for who I am
I'm telling you once again

You gotta go for who I am

Yeah, yeah it's alright
I'm telling you
There's two sides

Yeah, yeah it's alright
I'm telling you
There's two sides

Yeah, yeah it's alright
I'm telling you
There's two sides

Yeah yeah, it's alright
It's just the way I am

Because there's two sides to every story
You think you know me
You gotta show me
But it's alright, don't be sorry
It's just the way I am

Because there's two sides to every story
You think you know me
You gotta show me
But I'm telling you once again
You gotta go for who I am

Because there's two sides to every story
You think you know me
You gotta show me
But it's alright, don't be sorry
It's just the way I am

Because there's two sides to every story
You think you know me
You gotta show me
But I'm telling you once again
You gotta go for who I am
I'm telling you once again
