

Fivio Foreign, Hello (feat. Chlöe & KayCyy)

Been looking for somebody like you, don't let me excite you, but baby, you viral There's nobody like you, if nobody like you, then baby, I'd like to Take you through Brooklyn and Paris, my money is tall as the Eiffel
The man in the mirror, I'm nothing like Michael
But baby, you viral

Can I get a hello? (Baby, say something)
Can I get a hello? (Hello, hello)
Can I get a hello? (Hello, hello)
Can I get a hello? (Ooh, hello, hello)

Whether you knew it or whether you know it
I need you and me and it's hard not to show it
I move like a demon and talk like a poet
And if you ain't going, there's no one to go with
I'm moving with confidence (Moving with confidence)
I'm never hesitant
You got the perfect lil' body in measurements
Know I'm a gangster but I get affectionate

And I got buttons, you don't know that you pressing
And I'm going take you and show you my residence
Be all savvy, gon' move like the president
I wanna record you and show you the evidence

When you get with me (When you get with me)
Everybody gonna know you (Everybody gonna know you)
We can go viral (We can go viral)
Or we can go global

Most of my exes is local
And most of them n is scared to approach you
I take you too high, they can't touch you or hurt you
I take you too far, they can't reach you or curse you
I got too much money, I Dior bag purse you
Yeah, I know it's worth it (I know it's worth it)
I don't know how you be looking so perfect
I don't even think that you do it on purpose

Raising your price, being with me is so vital
Always look good, don't it?
The whole damn world want it
So show me how you go on it
I just want you on it
Baby, now
If I let my guard down, don't let me down
You're saying all the right things, so show me now
I don't care about the life
Just want you to treat me right
I'll give you more than a night
