Yeah

Huh

I'm so sick and tired

Sick of niggas dyin'

I'm so sick and tired, (So sick and tired) sick of niggas dyin'
If I name drop, they get more lit, 'cause them niggas ain't big as I am
And I feel like I'm blessed with a big excitement
And then I worked through the pain, I ain't into cryin'
They said it was hard, they ain't even lyin'
How you winnin', you ain't even tryin'

They got me hurt so I got to drill
I got to chill 'cause I got a deal
Who can I call when it's gettin' real?
I thought I was rich when I got a mill'
I want you to overstand
I could help you out, I can't hold your hand
We gon' brainstorm, and make a lil' plan
Don't worry 'bout me, nigga you a man
I'm on the gram talkin' to my fans
Playin' my song, I'm hopin' that they dance
Somebody got shot, I'm hopin' that's his mans
And I'm tryna survive, I'm focused on these bands, huh
Yeah, nigga shout out my daughter and them (Nigga shout out my daughter and them)
I do more for them, (Yeah) than anybody in this world could offer them
And I'm watchin' how they givin' 'em lies
You don't know how I be feelin' inside
On the real that shit killed me inside
Tried to forget but it sit in my mind
I got some killers that's willin' to die
If you look you see the drill in they eyes
They don't give it, then I'm stealin' the prize
I'm at the top, but I'm still on the rise
I got to work, I ain't chillin' inside
I hope my haters is feelin' the vibe
I'll never let 'em shit on the guys
I'mma do what I can a million times

I'm so sick and tired, (So sick and tired) sick of niggas dyin'
If I name drop, they get more lit, 'cause them niggas ain't big as I am
And I feel like I'm blessed with a big excitement
And then I worked through the pain, I ain't into cryin'

How you winnin', you ain't even tryin'
