

Flashlight Brown, Butterball

Can I take you to the movies?
I will buy you popcorn and candy.
They will make you fat and ugly,
So no other boy will look your way
And you'll be mine all mine every single day

My little butterball wouldn't go anywhere, without her man
Take her to the beach and she's ignored
And if she weren't so god damned pretty,
She'd be mine

Can I fuck you on the red eye?
Travelling hours with your best guy
I'm make all the passengers die
So no other boy will look your way
And you'll be mine all mine every single day

If I wasn't quite so boring in bed
If I made more money at my job
If I played in a cooler band than him
And if she weren't so god damned pretty, she'd be mine
