

Flatt And Scruggs, Who Will Sing For Me

Often I sing for my friends when death's cold hand I see
But when I am called who will sing one song for me
I wonder who will sing for me
When I'm called to across that silent sea who will sing for me
[ dobro ]
So I'll sing till the end and helpful try to be Assured that some friends will sing one song for me
I wonder who will sing for me...
