

Flaw, Fall Into This

Torn away from all that matters
And led by the wrong intentions
I know it wouldn't be too easy, not yet
To go somewhere I'm afraid of It's made of...

Thoughts I'm receiving, making me say
That I know I'll just be there once again
Lord I'm lost and then I'm tossed
Thoughts I'm receiving, making me say
That I know I'll just be there once again
No...

Wrong, nothing really matters
If I was gone, would it make you any sadder?
I feel half as good as normal, you know
To steal - what to steal - what's already taken
Here I go again...

Thoughts I'm receiving, making me say
That I know I'll just be there once again
Lord I'm lost and then I'm tossed
Thoughts I'm receiving, making me say
That I know I'll just be there once again

I think you know,
That you did this to me
I think you know,
That you did this to me
I think you know...
That you did this to me, you did this to me!

Why?!
You did this to me, I just want to know
Why?!
You did this to me
And it starts

God I'm losing sleep again
God I'm losing sleep again
And I feel my way
Thank you for making me talk
God I'm losing sleep again
God I'm losing sleep
And I failed, I think you know
