

Flee The Seen, Start The End Again

And you said, you said now this is it I'm so sick, so sick and reluctant constant collisions
never ending indecisions and I said, I said
I'm so sick, so sick of redundant
constant collisions
redefining repetition we'll both turn around back to back to take it back feet imaple the ground
run until we both pass out
