

Flee The Seen, Wire Tap Out

No time, caution sign
Seconds before the second look
Reveals this receiver
To send this disclaimer
I'm calling you out
I said, get out

And as the temperature is falling
Calling out the final warning
I said make the call
I said get out

Down and out
Get out the door
Before, you can't breath
The oxygen
Will not suffice another night
I said get out

Last chance, happenstance
Hiding behind these sliding doors
Reveals this receiver
To send this disclaimer
Completely complacent
I said get out

Seconds pass without a passing glance
Discard Pretense
Seconds pass without a passing glance
Disarm Defense Disarm Defense
Seconds pass without a passing glance
Decide to Live, Decide to Live

Down and out
Get out the door
Before, you can't breath
The oxygen
Will not suffice, another night

After the dial tone
Wears itself thin
This sound Will rise
