

Flesh Field, Damnation

The voice of a fallen angel
That shatters all the night,
With wings of purest silk,
With a heart of Heaven's light.

I can still feel you deep in my soul
With all my heart.
Breaking the barriers.
Isolation in damnation.

In that darkest hour I reach for you,
Still calling out for you, my child.
I can see inside.
I can see your heart.
I will never cry.
I will never die.
