

Fletcher, Eras Of Us

how are you doing?
where have you been?
i've been practicing this moment for like 20 something years in my head it's nice to meet you that's what i said
you said baby this is gonna be some movie shit we'll never forget sometimes i re-run those 16 seasons for the rush these are the eras of us a story of love

stealing the air right from my lungs
girl of my dreams
forever we're young
remember it just the way it was the eras of us

i'm new york city you were LA i would fly across the country just to kiss you and be back in a day we crashed just as quick as we burned now someone new get a turn i don't know you and it hurts i told every one of my friends you won't get a lyric again but god damn here i fuckin am stuck in the eras of us

a story of love

i didn't mean it when i said i was numb cause i'm feeling every feeling cutting straight to my guts but the problem is that i'm just an adrenaline slut yeah i said it
so what!
lately i've been swinging fists and starting a fight i've been tryna kill the memory of you in mind it's a cross i'm gonna bear until the day that i die
yeah i said it

oh i miss the eras of us
a story of love
i fucked it up we had it all and now it's just

i been practicing this moment but i never thought i'd see you again
