

Flexa Lyndo, Bad Film Outtake

Going nowhere
Without any planning forecast
I'm standing nowhere without any planning forecast
And life goes by

Bad film outtake
Sweet memories and blast from the past
It's a bad film outtake and I'm the leading part of a lousy cast

Everyone is pretty on the television tonight
Everyone is pretty on the television tonight
And life goes by, oh, life goes by

TV programs, my imagination's running wild
TV programs masturbatory enterprise
We'll all get blind

I say everyone is pretty on the television tonight
I say everyone is pretty: I never ever seen such a lie
We're all blind, oh, we're all blind

How does it feel to appear in a bad film outtake ?
Your father and you mother think it's easy to play
To do the Cary Grant, but ain't no way, you play dumb

I say now everyone is pretty on the television tonight
I say everyone is pretty: I never ever seen such a lie
Everyone is pretty on the television tonight
I say everyone is pretty: I never ever seen such a lie
Such a desperate lie
So, desperate lie
