

Flexa Lyndo, The Things You Wanna Have (But You Don't Have It)

I'm not lonely
Hey ! Friend of mine
And the pity is a lie
You're not sorry
I don't mind
Not the same front

You escape, you have an alibi
And my feelings are just crap
We just get pissed every night
We're not sorry

And the pity is a lie
The things you wanna have, but I don't have it

It's a band
It's a fight
And the music is the gun
Killing me softly like a drug
God bless Lou Reed

Makes no sense
Nothing's mine
And my feelings are just crap
They don't deserve any song
I'm not Morrissey

And my feelings are just crap
The things I wanna have, but you don't have it

I see something in your eyes, but you're not by my side
Don't change nothing it's your right, 'cause you are lonely

Time is never on my side, should we wait until July ?
Don't change nothing it's your right, you are lonely
