

Flickerstick, Right Way To Fly

Listen for sounds you've been chosen to hear
Like you're laughing alone in the dark
Feeling so down, but there's nothing to fear
But the break that feel in my heart
I suddenly see someone's waving at me
A silhouette image of day dreams
I hear the sounds of the turntables spinning
And you're running on air
I feel alright sometimes, so look out yesterday
Tuning out my thoughts with every word you say
Cause I know there's a right way to fly
And a right way to die
So just hold on
Numbing the pain , it's a brand new beginning
Cause everyone here looks the the same
The merry-go-round makes me feel like I'm spinning
And everyone's screaming my name
But I suddenly see someone's waving at me
A silhouette image of day dreams
I'm hearing sounds of the turntables spinning
Like I'm running on air
I feel alright sometimes, so look out yesterday
Tuning out my thoughts with every word you say
Cause I know there's a right way to fly
And a right way to die
So just hold on
Well time is slowly tearing me apart
So I'm just holding on Cause I know it's alright
And I feel so high today
Despite the world, and everything you say
Cause I'm getting out once in a while
So goodbye to yesterday
