

Flight 409, The Golden State

You can take this how you want
But to me it means
I'm dying here tonight
In your arms and in your eyes
Don't forget to keep me in mind
You know you were so untouchable
Stand strong
You know the rest of us will never think the same again

Is this what California means to you
I always saw it as a place with sunsets and palm trees but everyone here looks the same
And all I want to be is next to you tonight

Carry me tonight
And don't say another word
I don't think that I can handle another broken heart from you
So watch and learn
Just watch and learn

Is this what California means to you,
I always saw it as a place with sunsets and palm trees but everyone here looks the same.
And all I want to be is next to you tonight

Well I just want to say thank you
For this burden I'll carry until the day I die
This one is for you
So where's the note you left behind?

Is this what California means to you,
I always saw it as a place with sunsets and palm trees but everyone here looks the same.
And all I want to be is next to you tonight.

Is this what California means to you,
I always saw it as a place with sunsets and palm trees but everyone here looks the same.
And all I want to be is next to you tonight.
Tonight
