Im sick of waiting commiserating on the things that never will happen im sick of wanting broke from the first thing in the beginning i never wanted to be waiting

Im sick of feeling sorry when i did nothing wrong im tired of feeling lost so im wrote you this song

Im sick of knowing all that you showed me while you are alone with him im sick of hating you're love created its over rated this time

Im sick of feeling sorry when i did nothing wrong im tired of feeling lost so im wrote you this song
