

Flip, Stucked To The Ground

They're all going forward
And I'm stucked to the ground
Seems that I can't find the clues
To move on with my life
She moved to another country
Got a son & now is a wife
And he's working out of town
With his girlfriend (and only 18 years old)

They're all deal doing it well but not me
I can't deal with that
I will never be the person
That dreamed mum & dad
Never gonna win at trophy
Guess we all agreed in that
I'm a natural born looser
For sure there's not another one

What am I doing with my life
Will I ever get it right
By now I'm wasting my time
To wanker than a real life
