

Flip, What's Going On?

I understand what you say
But I don't feel the same
I must find the real truth
Not for me but for you

Hey! What the fucking is going on?
Hey! Everybody says I'm wrong
Why?! I don't say that I have the right
But do they have it?
Why?

You accept what you are told by the teachers
And parents, It's time to realize
That they don't own the right
That they don't own the right
