

Flip, Wrong Side

Along our way
We've got to choose
'tween what's wrong or right
Basically our lives
We've got one hand to do
This acts that we think
And one hand to do
What you expect from me

Days are passing by
One after one
Don't wait for another
'Cos It's my life
I must go break down the walls
Even though knowing
The fact, that I could
Hurt myself but I'm going

We got a part
In this mediocre place
You point at me
'Cos I'm not the same
It's a different way
Where we see reality
See I'm not the one
Why don't you come?

Join Me!!!
What are you waiting for?
