

Flirtations, So Much In Love (Lesbian Love)

Aurelio

See them holding hands together
As they gazed upon the stars above
With their love bright and pure
That you'd know it is for sure
So in love, so much in love
By the shore or in a cafe
On the plains or mountains high above
Looking for shooting stars
Women knowing who they are
So in love (so in love)
So much in love (so much in love)
So in love, they were in love
They'd share their wisdom of the ages
With sons that they would call their own
Struggling for the freedoms of all people
In a crowd or standing alone
They were women loving one another
And you'd know what they were thinking of
'Cause their words rang so true
As they whispered "I love you"
So in love (so in love)
So much in love (so much in love)
So in love, Ohhhh.
So in love, Wooh in love
So in love, agiban las mujeres, las mujeres inamoratas!
So much in love, so in love. That's lesbian love!
That's lesbian love!
