

Flogging Molly, Never Met A Girl Like You Before

I would wrap the world in clover
If I could make me see my way
And I would die for you tomorrow
Would you come to me today?
Sing a song of sadness about a girl with the happy face
And dance upon the water with no ripple or a trace

Love is here any cloud in the sky
Would you be my flushing bride?
I don't think so
But I never met a girl like,
I never met a girl like,
I never met a girl like you before

I'd climb the highest mountain
To the sunrise from your face
Light a million candles
To flicker to your name
Scream aloud with vengeance
With the wind beneath my breath
Do you understand the madness?
Do you recognize the grace?

Love is here any cloud in the sky
Would you be my flushing bride?
I don't think so
But I never met a girl like
Never met a girl like
Never met a girl like
Never met a girl like you before,

Oh no, I never met a girl like you before
Oh no, I never met a girl like you before

(Cinco de mayo!)

I'd surely die in limbo
Waiting for your every call
Will I ever see your sunshine?
Don't want anything at all

Like a boy with no companion
Lost for baby blue
Words have only meaning
When they come from one like you

Love is here any cloud in the sky
Would you be my flushing bride?
I don't think so
But I never met a girl like
I Never met a girl like
I Never met a girl like you before

Oh, I never met a girl like
Never met a girl like
Never met a girl like you before

Oh no, I never met a girl like you before
Oh no, I never met a girl like you before
Oh no, I never met a girl like you before
