

Floor Jansen, Invincible

Out in a rain
It's never-ending, pouring
Washes away
Everything that you were
Trapped inside an empty shell
A body yours no longer
Trapped inside a memory
Of a life once was

Out in the rain
Stronger now
Stronger than all of the pain
Broken but beautiful
All this time
You are invincible

Master the pain
The cradle of your story
Changed by disdain
Starting life once more
Pushed into recovery
The choice no longer yours
Pushed to self-discovery
Heal your heart

Out in the rain
Stronger now
Stronger than all of the pain
Broken but beautiful
Your devil's bane
Is yours to end now
'Cause all this time
You are invincible

You are much stronger
You are much stronger
All this time you are invincible

Out in the rain
Stronger now
Stronger than all of the pain
Broken but beautiful
Back on the shore
Stronger now
Stronger than ever before
Broken but beautiful
All this time
You are invincible

And all this time
You were invincible
