

Floorpunch, Deep Inside

You talk about doing
It never gets done
You blame it on us
When you know you're the one
If you're here to put us down
Then you better fucking look around
The feeling I have runs deep inside
You tried once, but you can't step on our pride
What we have can't be broke
Won't be torn apart by the words you spoke
We've been here for far too long
And what we built is way too strong
