

Floorpunch, Turn Away

You won't look us in the eyes
You turn the other way
You had your chance to speak
Now listen to what we say
You say our will is weak
And we'll be pushed around
Not this fucking time, you'll never bring us down

If you only want to fight,
why bring it to the shows We'll never back down,
we'll let it come to blows
