

Florence & The Machine, My Best Dress

When the life is over i won't be sad and blue I will put on my fancy hat lie down next to you I'll kiss you once for life
I'll kiss you twice for death hold you close for comfort wearing my best dress

you look so angry when you sleep your face a trouble frown so I will smooth your furrowed brow al I lay in the ground
I'll kiss you once for life
I'll kiss you twice for death
hold you close for comfort

and as the mourners pass me I will smile and wave thank them for their sympathy and tell them I'll be brave but once the wake is over and I am drunk and feling fine I'll go out there and find another boy to pass the time as we're dancing cheek to cheek and the lights are laid low I'll request this song for you saying into the ground below once the song is over I decided to go to bed

I'll leave him on the dance floor and return to you instead

I'll kiss you once for life
I'll kiss you twice for death
hold you close for comfort
