

Flowing Tears, The Carnage People

all night - fire longs for fireflies all night - lightened by a handgun fire war is over - and tonight reload my arms all night - shaking down the smile I hide all night - happiness when words collide war is over - and tonight we'll carry on war is over and gone

there' no god, there's no god on my trace there's no god in the smile on my face there's no god in the hands that I shake there's no god in the kiss that I rape

silence in my heart

war ain't over - and tonight I'm out for more# all night - burning down the bedroom light all night - carnage people by my side
