

Fluffy, Husband

He doesn't like the colour of your hair
When you get in put back on your underwear
He thinks you look fat in that dress
The truth is he doesn't want you to effervesce

Chorus

So you do waht he says but you're hating inside
You do what he says but you're waiting inside
He doesn't have to wear a ring
Your girlfriends know you better than him
He tells you you're a bitch, you've begun to believe him
You never did marry, aren't you living in sin?
Now you're wearing a see through dress
He'd kill you if he knew but you couldn't care less

Chorus

1st verse repeated

So you do what he says but you're hating inside
You do what he says but you're waiting inside

So you do wht he says but you're hating inside
You do what he says but you're waiting inside

Chorus
