

Fly To The Sky, All My Love

I'll loving you I will be everything,
You're my destiny
Your face always comes to me in my dreams
An old friend who I often meet
My heart wants to taste your soft sweetness
It's the same as being in love, my heart like this
I laugh like I am playing a game
I've already fallen for you..

* CHORUS *

Don't you know, I can feel you please don't cry
You don't have to close your eyes
Everything will be great if you let me have you
I can't live, please forgive me steal your heart
If you let me, I'll tell you
You're my everything
(Rap) Girl let's engage in a deep romance
Only way it's gonna work is if we take a chance
Not too many guys are down with a woman's needs
I'm the type of guy who'll give you everything so please
Understand me, why you waiting
Don't know why you hesitating
Other girls have tried before
Baby you, I choose to be my lover
I hate that you missed my confession
The delay makes us remain as just friends
I wanna be by your side..

* repeat

When I can open my heart and show you everything inside it
I can't wish for anything more..
Don't you know...every time
I can feel you please don't cry
You don't have to close your eyes
Everything will be great if you let me have you
I can't live, please forgive me steal your heart
If you let me, I'll tell you
You're my everything
