

Fly To The Sky, Blood

I can't stop myself from loving you
Fate had already decided this before my life began
My mind can't stop missing you
I've tried and tried again to erase you, but you remain like a scar
My eyes are covered to keep from seeing you
My lips are closed to keep from calling you
But still my heart can't
But still my mind can't
Stop from feeling you, from wanting you
I shouldn't call you when I miss you
Since I only hurt more from wanting you
My eyes are covered to keep from seeing you
My lips are closed to keep from calling you
But still my heart can't
But still my mind can't
Stop from feeling you, from wanting you
Please, don't forget me
I can't live if our love is forgotten
My eyes are covered to keep from seeing you
I'm living without you
My lips are closed to keep from calling you
Still I can't erase you
Because of this failure, my heart can
Feel you, I always feel you babe
I feel you. I'm always feeling you
But if my heart still can't
Then I don't want to feel anything at all
