

Fly To The Sky, Like A Man

I'm so weak and I'm a person of so many fears Until now I hadn't known that, I had lived on not knowing before you left me that is Although I love you everyday
Although I miss you, even if I try to stop my feelings Endless tears spill out and for the first time I'm so unlike a man My heart is as cold as ice and in the end this love was worthless in the face of separation Why did you want me? Why did you live inside of me?
The more I study you, the more I hate you
Although I love you everyday
Although I miss you, even if I try to stop my feelings
Endless tears spill out
and for the first time I'm so unlike a man I can't forget you, even if you forget me Because you'll be the most special thing to me even if my life stops because of my waiting for you, my loving of you, and my wanting for you.
I don't have any regrets living like this because I'm going to live as your man
