Sentimental things, they bring, they make me think of all you said
Never lettin?go, you're always on my mind
Ever since that day you went away
Now I'm crying everyday I'm seeing visions of your love
As you watch from heaven up above I know you're shining down
I wish you were around but you're gone away to a place where someday
You and I will meet each other, and forever, I pray that we'll always be together
