

Fly To The Sky, Real Love

For me, it can only be you, and your breath alone to breathe with mine.

You stood by my side, and all I did was hurt you.

The more I try to forget you, the harder it is.

Girl, I'm hoping you'll stay. I can feel it now, how much pain I put you through.

I promise you, I'll never make you cry again, as I stay by your side.

Listen to the feelings I have for you...baby girl, feel the future we're going to have together.

Now I've realized I can't forget you.

For me, it can only be you. I can't go, won't, without you.
